

Derrick B. Owens
Senior Vice President of Government & Industry Affairs
WTA – Advocates for Rural Broadband

Derrick is Senior Vice President of Government & Industry Affairs at WTA – Advocates for Rural Broadband. He manages WTA’s Washington, DC office and is responsible for working with Congress, Executive Branch agencies, and the Federal Communications Commission. He also serves as the association’s lead spokesperson on policy matters and is responsible for WTA’s industry outreach efforts. Derrick also serves as staff director for WTA’s public policy committee where he works directly with the membership to develop policy positions on legislation and regulations affecting rural telecommunications companies.

Prior to joining the WTA’s staff, Derrick worked at the U.S. Department of Commerce’s National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) where he served in a number of senior-level advisory positions. Prior to NTIA, Derrick worked for his hometown Congressman in Washington, DC serving as an advisor on telecommunications and other legislative matters.

Derrick has a master’s degree in Public Policy from the University of Maryland’s School of Public Policy. He received his bachelor’s degree in Political Science from Allegheny College in Pennsylvania. Derrick serves on several boards of directors and is a member of both his college and high school athletic halls of fame.